DESCRIPTION

Bedmond Pavilion is a versatile and well-presented community facility, offering a bright main reception area / activity space available to rent with a combination of open plan areas suitable for classes, groups and community sessions. The accommodation includes ancillary rooms that lend themselves for meeting uses and storage, together with a fitted kitchen facility to support day to day catering needs.

The interior is generally finished well with modern lighting and a mix of timber effect flooring and carpeted areas, creating a practical layout for a variety of occupiers. The pavilion is available for exclusive occupation. The adjacent changing rooms and sports fields can be available upon request.

The adjacent car park is available to the public and spaces will not be allocated under the terms of the lease.

LOCATION

Bedmond Pavilion is located in the village of Bedmond, close to Kings Langley and Abbots Langley. The surrounding area is predominantly residential and open green space, with Kings Langley, Abbots Langley and Watford town centre within convenient driving distance.

The M25 (Junction 20) is close by, providing onward connections to the A41 and the wider motorway network, including the M1 via the M25. Whilst the location benefits from good road connectivity to the wider area, public transport links are relatively limited. The nearest mainline rail services are accessed via Kings Langley Station (2 miles), with additional services available from Watford Junction.
