LOCATION

Stirling is widely regarded as one of Scotland's busiest and most popular tourist and business locations and benefits from a superb location, allowing easy access by road and rail to all other major business centres throughout the country.

The city lies approximately 26 miles northeast of Glasgow and around 38 miles northwest of Edinburgh and provides access to 75% of Scotland's population within a 48 mile radius.

The subjects are located on the corner of Pitt Terrace and Wellgreen Road within the heart of Stirling City Centre. To the rear of the property is a multi storey car park whilst further parking is available nearby.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a parade of 3 ground floor retail properties which were refurbished in 2021. Since this time period all 3 units have been occupied.

Internally each unit provides an open plan retail area and disabled w/c.

PROPOSAL

Offers over £300,000 are invited for the Heritable interest.

FLOOR AREAS

From sizes taken during our inspection we calculate the subject property, measured in accordance with the RICS Code of Measurement Practice (second edition, January 2018) to extend to the following approximate gross internal area (GIA):
