Description

Bright Fitted Office Suites available only a short walk from Victoria station

The floor has been recently refurbished to provide good quality, fully fitted office accommodation. The office floors benefit from excellent levels of natural light, new air conditioning, and a contemporary fit-out. The offices boast excellent transport links, being only a 2-minute walk from Victoria Station.

66 Wilton Road is prominently located on the east side of Wilton Road between the junctions of Gillingham Row and Longmoore Street. This prime location benefits from many of the local amenities of Victoria including some of London's finest restaurants, hotels, and shops being just a stone's throw away from the front door. Transport links are excellent being only 300 meters from national train routes at Victoria Station (Victoria, Circle, District, and Mainline Services) all within a short walk of the property.
