4TH FLOOR / JOHNSTONE HOUSE

52-54 ROSE STREET . ABERDEEN

LOCATION

The subjects are located on the east side of Rose Street, midway between its junctions with Skene Street and Thistle Street within the heart of Aberdeen City Centre.

The subjects are also located approximately 200 metres from Union Street which is Aberdeen's principal commercial thoroughfare and in close proximity to Aberdeen's popular West End office district.

The location of the property therefore provides excellent access to both the private and public transport links serving the City.

Selected occupiers within the building at present include: Arnlea Systems, FRP Advisory and Ledingham Chalmers.

The exact location of the building is highlighted on the plan below.

DESCRIPTION

The subject comprise a modern office suite within a city centre multi occupancy building which has been significantly upgraded in recent years. The 4th floor has been split into two wings, the first which comprises a predominantly open plan working environment with a series of glass fronted private offices. The second wing has been fitted out to provide a series of modern high quality meeting rooms, seminar rooms and a board room.

The property itself has been fitted out to a high standard and benefits from the following:-

- Excellent mix of open plan working areas, private offices and meeting room facilities.
- Raised access floors with floor boxes providing IT and power connections.
- Modern suspended acoustic ceiling incorporate Category 2 style lighting.
- Ceiling integrated comfort cooling system.

In addition to the above, Johnstone House benefits from a secure entry system with electronic swipe card and a refurbished shared reception facility at ground floor level.

Three passenger lifts provide access to each floor landing where ladies, gents and disabled toilet facilities can be found.

ACCOMMODATION / FLOOR AREAS

The subjects provide the following accommodation:-

Main Open Plan Office Area with 8 Private Offices, Photocopy Area, Safe Storage Area, Staff Kitchenette & Reception.
