FOUNDATION HOUSE , 2-4 FORUM PLACE, HATFIELD, HERTFORDSHIRE, AL10 0RN

Location

Hatfield is a major business centre in a highly accessible location. It is connected to the A1(M) via junctions 2, 3 & 4 and the A414 dual carriageway provides fast east/west link between the M1 at Hemel Hempstead and the M11 at Harlow. The M25 is just 6 miles to the south at Junction 23 (South Mimms).

The property is located close to both Hatfield Town Centre and The Galleria Shopping Centre which together provide an excellent range of services and facilities for staff.

Hatfield mainline station provides a fast-electrified service to London Kings Cross (22 minutes approx.).

Accommodation

Forum Place is in Fiddlebridge Lane which is accessed from Queensway via St Albans Road West or from Lemsford Road.

The offices form part of a modern purpose-built courtyard style development. The architectural design is of a deep pitched roof with covered walkway around a private courtyard. The building is owned by the charity Hertfordshire Community Foundation who have a smart ground floor office suite that comprises three interconnected rooms and also a separate open plan first floor office which are surplus to their operational needs.

Features include:

- * A highly accessible location Attractive architectural design
- * Shared kitchen and toilet facilities
- * 1 allocated parking space with the ground floor.
- * Free public parking available close by

In addition, subject to availability the tenant may have use of a large ground floor meeting room at subsidised rates.
