Description

Stirling Ackroyd proudly present 107 Drysdale street to the market. A studio style office situated on the ground floor of this modern style development, moments away from Hoxton Square. The space benefits from high ceilings, a fully integrated kitchen, and space for multiple work stations. Toilets and showers are available in the common parts of the building, as well as secure bike storage.

The studio is perfectly suited to creative occupiers with its distinctive, quirky character, while also offering the flexibility to be reimagined into a sleek, corporate-style workspace if desired. The development does have a private courtyard and underground parking which lease holders may be willing to rent out, subject to availability.
