Description

For sale via secure sale online bidding - terms and conditions apply.

Most attractive and deceptively spacious double fronted commercial premises situated in the heart of Torrisholme village offering character accommodation.

Double fronted end terraced commercial premises which was formerly residential accommodation. So plenty of scope subject to any necessary change in planning use.

Character premises, deceptively spacious which could suit a number of different users. Must be viewed internally to fully appreciate the amount of accommodation.

Front palisade wall. Enclosed rear yard area.

Suit a variety of users subject to any necessary change in planning use. Been trading for many years as an opticians.

Good investment property with excellent potential as well.

Viewing strongly recommended.

Please note we have not inspected this property.
