LOCATION

The premises are situated on the Staffordshire Technology Park at Beaconside, approximately one mile north-east from the town centre and with a link to the M6 Motorway at Junction 14 about three miles distant via the A513 Beaconside eastern distributor road. Stafford also benefits from its rail connection providing inter-city services throughout the national network.

The Staffordshire Technology Park is the town's principal office development and is home to major occupiers including Cera Healthcare, the Staffordshire Police Authority, NFU Mutual Assurance and Handelsbanken.

DESCRIPTION

Lakhpur Court is an office development of two-storey brick and tile construction consisting of three imposing buildings fronting an extensive forecourt car parking area.

Darwin House is detached and provides accommodation accessed through an entrance lobby leading to four suites on the ground and first floors with a passenger lift linking each level. The office areas are open plan in format and each suite enjoys the benefit of its own kitchen and male, female and disabled W.C. facilities.

Fitted features include raised access floors, dado trunking, suspended ceilings with recessed Category II lighting, comfort cooling and heating, carpeting, coded entry systems to the main doors and intruder alarm protection of the common areas.

Only one of the four suites is currently available although there may be an opportunity to acquire additional space in the building over the coming months.
