Location

Located a prominent position in the heart of Surbiton town centre, one of southwest London's most popular and well-connected suburban high-street locations. Victoria Road is characterised by a strong mix of national retailers, independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and essential services, all of which contribute to a consistently high footfall throughout the day.

The property is exceptionally well-located, sitting just a short walk from Surbiton Station, which provides fast and frequent rail services to London Waterloo in as little as 17 minutes, as well as regular connections to Wimbledon, Clapham Junction, Kingston, and the wider South West London network. Numerous local bus routes also operate along Victoria Road and the surrounding streets, ensuring excellent accessibility for customers and staff.

Description

The unit benefits from excellent frontage onto Victoria Road, providing strong visibility and exposure to the high levels of passing pedestrian and vehicular traffic. The accommodation is configured to provide an open-plan sales area to the front, with excellent ceiling heights, prominent shopfront glazing, and flexible internal layout options. The premises form part of a mixed-use building and benefit from level access to the street, making the unit easily accessible for customers. On-street parking, loading bays, and nearby public car parks support convenient access for deliveries and visitors. The property offers a highly visible, adaptable, and well-located commercial unit in a thriving high-street environment, making it an excellent opportunity for occupiers seeking a prominent town-centre presence.
