Location

Swindon is the principal commercial centre in Wiltshire with a population of approximately 180,000. The Borough continues to expand and has been identified as the major growth centre for this region.

The town holds an excellent position on the M4 motorway and is served by both Junctions 15 and 16. There is an intercity rail service to London Paddington with a journey time of approximately 1 hour.

Papermakers House is a modern well-specified office in a prominent location adjacent to West Swindon District Shopping Centre, which is anchored by Asda, along with the Shaw Ridge Leisure Park, with occupiers including Cineworld, Ten Pin and a De Vere Hotel. The Link Leisure Centre is also nearby. The property is accessed via Whitehill Way or Tewkesbury Way, Corton Crescent and Rivenhall Road and is situated close to the Great Western Way dual carriageway and approximately 1.5 miles from Junction 16 of the M4.
