LOCATION

The Weavers Mill is located in the Camperdown Leisure Park, anchored by Cineworld. The building is adjacent to the Premier Inn, across from the KFC, McDonalds and Nandos.

The leisure park includes the very popular Dundee Ice Rink and has a massive catchment population. Dundee itself is Scotland's fourth largest city, with a population of approximately 150,000 persons and has seen significant investment in recent years, with the opening of the V&A Dundee completely transforming the redeveloped waterfront. The universities and colleges of further education have built up an excellent reputation for software engineering and computer gaming in particular.

The site has its own dedicated car park and also has extensive shared car parking.

DESCRIPTION

The Weavers Inn is a purpose-built licensed premises. The building is under generally pitched and tiled roofs, with flat sections. The building was formerly connected to the adjacent Premier Inn, although it has now been separated.
