THE BUSINESS

The Dog & Pheasant has recently closed and previously operated under a lease agreement and was a food-orientated pub and restaurant. The building provided flexible trading spaces to generate income streams from a food, drink and events (the split between food and drink was approximately 50/50). In particular, the generous outdoor space is ideal for summer BBQs, live music, family events and al fresco dining, with ample room for additional seating, pop-up bars, or even a garden kitchen. The location is well suited to families, dog walkers, and social meet-ups; the beer garden is a major draw throughout the warmer months.
