Location:

Barnsbury is a predominantly residential district that is two miles north of central London. Brewery Road runs between the A5200 York Way to the west and the A5203 Caledonian Road to the east. The property stock along the road is predominantly commercial and comprises a mixture of light industrial/trade counter units and office buildings similar to those in Blenheim Court.. The location provides good access into central London for goods deliveries which enhances the appeal as a commercial location. The area has benefitted from the recent development and regeneration of the former railway land immediately to the north of Kings Cross St Pancras station. Situated 1 mile from Kings Cross and less than 1 mile from Google, Facebook and YouTube HQs. Occupiers in the vicinity of the property includes Screwfix, BSS, Topps Tiles and Sixt Vehicle Rental.
