Location

Cleator Moor is a town with a population of approximately 7,000, located within West Cumbria with close proximity to the larger towns of Whitehaven and Egremont. The town benefits from close proximity to the Sellafield nuclear plant, 8 miles away, allowing the location to be a convenient position for many workers to live, who commute regularly to the plant.

The property is situated at the intersection of Princes Street and Towerson Street. Nearby occupiers include Adams Read & Hocking Funeral Directors, Wath Brow Convenience Store, Wath Brow Hornets RLFC and Wath Brow & District Royal British Legion Club.

Description

1 Princes Street is a two-storey end of terraced building made up of traditional brick construction with a rendered finish under pitched slate roofs. Wath Brow Fish and Chip Shop is positioned within part of the ground floor only. This demise provides a fully fitted out Hot Food Takeaway sales area, kitchen, and preparation area to the front, with storage, WC/boiler area, and stairs to an attic for further storage to the rear.

The residential self-contained dwelling is part of the ground and first floor, comprising a spacious living/dining room, and kitchen to the ground floor and 3 no. double bedrooms, a large bathroom and storage on the first floor.

Sale Price

Offers in the region of £205,000 are invited for the sale of the freehold building and business, inclusive of trade name, fixtures and fittings, goodwill and stock, with vacant possession.
