Business for Sale – £20,000 Premium Bunyan Road, Kempston

New Lease – £25,000 per annum An excellent opportunity to acquire a well-established café business located on Bunyan Road, Kempston, within a busy local parade that benefits from strong footfall and significant ongoing residential development in the area. The premises are fully equipped and ready for immediate operation, featuring a commercial kitchen with full extraction system, along with fixtures, fittings, and café equipment included in the sale. The current operator has achieved a high turnover, making this an ideal opportunity for an experienced caterer or entrepreneur looking to take over a successful and established business with strong potential for further growth. The property also benefits from a spacious three-bedroom flat above, which can either be used as owner's accommodation or rented out separately to generate additional income. Externally, there is a large garden with outbuildings, a side entrance for deliveries, and off-street car parking — a rare advantage in this location. Kempston is a thriving and expanding area just outside Bedford, offering excellent local amenities and strong transport connections via the A421, A6, and Bedford railway station, providing easy access to London and surrounding towns. This is a turnkey opportunity to acquire a well-positioned and profitable business with the benefit of a new lease and additional residential accommodation offering further income potential.
