LOCATION

Sandwich is a historic market town situated within the Dover district of Kent, positioned on the River Stour and approximately 12 miles east of Canterbury, 15 miles north of Dover, and 70 miles south-east of central London.

The town benefits from strong road connectivity via the A256, providing direct access to the A2 and wider motorway network, linking efficiently to Canterbury, Dover, and the M2 corridor.

Rail services from Sandwich railway station offer regular connections to Canterbury, Ramsgate, Dover Priory and London St Pancras International, with high-speed services to London achievable in approximately 90 minutes via Ashford International.

SITUATION

Sandwich offers a well-rounded retail provision, combining a strong presence of independent traders with a selection of national occupiers including Co-op Food, Costa Coffee, Nationwide, Boots and SPAR. The primary retail pitch is focused around Market Street, King Street and Cattle Market.

The property occupies a prominent position within one of the town's main retail thoroughfares, surrounded by a mix of established independents and a handful of national multiples.

Sandwich railway station is within walking distance, providing convenient access for visitors and commuters, while several nearby public car parks offer both short and long stay parking options.

DESCRIPTION

The property is a mid-terrace building, dating from the 15th-17th century, arranged over ground and first floors, sitting within the Sandwich town centre conservation area.

The two ground floor commercial units benefit from a full height glazed frontage. Both units have access to the large rear yard located off New Street.

A self-contained residential flat, accessed via the rear yard, comprises two double bedrooms, a separate kitchen and living area.
