LOCATION

The subject premises are located within the West Lothian town of Broxburn, which is approximately 10 miles west of Edinburgh, situated between Junctions 2 and 3 of the M8 motorway.

The premises hold a prominent high street location fronting onto East Main Street (A899), the main thoroughfare running through Broxburn town centre which ultimately links up with Junction 2/3 of the M8 and Junction 1 of the M9.

The surrounding area is a mixture of traditional and new build residential along with both high street retail and new retail developments within the immediate vicinity.

DESCRIPTION

The premises comprise an end terrace, 2 storey, stone built property under a pitched and slated roof historically used as a Masonic Lodge. There is also a 2 storey extension to the rear which provides a fire exit to the first floor and storage accommodation.

Internally the ground floor comprises an entrance reception, function room with bar, kitchen facilities, male, female and disabled WC facilities. The first floor level has been arranged to provide open plan accommodation in the form of a grand hall with servery area and further WC facilities.

ACCOMMODATION

In accordance with the RICS Code of Measuring Practice (6th Edition) we estimate the Gross Internal Area to be approximately 372 sq m (4,000 sq ft).

BUSINESS RATES

The property currently has a Rateable Value of £6,800 which results in rates payable (2024/25) of approximately £3,300 per annum.

OFFERS

Our client's heritable interest is available to purchase and the quoting price is offers over £150,000. Interested parties are advised to note their interest in writing to ensure they are kept updated on any closing dates.
