MARYLEBONE

14A Shouldham Street is located within the highly sought-after London village of Marylebone, positioned at the core of the West End. Marylebone is recognised globally as a premier commercial, residential and leisure destination, long established as one of London's most desirable neighbourhoods.

Framed by Regent's Park to the north, Mayfair to the south, Fitzrovia to the east and Paddington to the west, the area benefits from an extensive range of amenities, offering an exceptional blend of retail, leisure, dining and hotel provision. This amenity is complemented by Marylebone's status as one of London's most prestigious commercial districts, home to a diverse roster of international occupiers including Lazard, PIMCO, BDO, Bridgepoint Capital and Union Bancaire Privée.

In addition to its outstanding lifestyle offering, Marylebone provides excellent transport connectivity, with several underground and mainline train stations in close proximity.

Shouldham Street is also within convenient walking distance of several of London's prime retail, cultural and F&B destinations, including Bond Street, Marylebone High Street, Selfridges and the Wallace Collection.

THE BUILDING

14A Shouldham Street was built in the early 19th century and previously served as a chapel and light industrial space before it was converted into office accommodation in 1988. In 2019, the property was subject to a comprehensive refurbishment and extension to create best-in-class, creative office accommodation arranged over lower ground, ground and two upper floors, with subsequent upgrades to the building completed in 2022. The total NIA extends to 5,609 sq ft (7,314 sq ft GIA).

The property benefits from dual access off Shouldham Street which leads into a modern reception and a client meeting room area. There is a central lift shaft providing access to all floors in addition to a stair core at the north of the property providing secondary access.

Floor plates range from 1,034 sq ft to 1,568 sq ft. The lower ground has been fitted with a modern kitchen and breakout area with a private courtyard to the front, providing excellent natural light. The upper parts of the building provide modern, open plan office accommodation and all floors benefit from WC provision.

GROUND FLOOR MEETING ROOM

The property was comprehensively refurbished in 2019. As part of the works, the second floor was added and the basement floor level was lowered to maximise floor-to-ceiling heights. The refurbishment also included full window replacement, all new MEP systems, new ceilings and raised floors, staff shower and the creation of a feature staircase.
