Prominent Retail Premises

Location

The space is situated on a busy and well-positioned location between Petersfield railway station and the town's prime retailing area, benefiting from strong pedestrian flow and excellent town centre visibility. The location benefits from close proximity to Chapel Street, the High Street and Rams Walk Shopping Centre, with Central car park also just a short walk away.

Lavant Street is home to a variety of predominantly independent and local businesses, with convenient on-street parking available nearby. Nearby occupiers include Domino's Pizza and The General Wine Company.

Description

The well-presented double-fronted retail premises are arranged over the ground floor with a wide glazed frontage, offering excellent natural light and strong prominence within a busy local parade. The property benefits from attractive character features, excellent display frontage, kitchen facilities, storage areas and WC, together with nearby on-street parking.
