LOCATION

The premises are located at Barton Marina in Barton-under-Needwood near Burton upon Trent. There is a parade of unique retail shops and restaurants, a large pub restaurant, an independent cinema and apartment complex on site.

The marina is situated on the edge of the beautiful village of Barton-under-Needwood, yet only minutes from the A38 trunk road. The development is accessible by road, foot and boat.

There is parking on site for over 250 cars with provisions also made for coaches.

The Marina has over 300 moorings for residential and holiday boats and is an established leisure destination for attracting boats from across the UK.

DESCRIPTION

The subject property is situated adjacent to the site office and boatyard serving the marina complex and comprises a ground floor retail unit of brick and block construction, with clad wood upper elevations, beneath a pitched tiled roof incorporating wooden double-glazed windows and a double pedestrian access door.

Internally, the property features an open plan seating area accommodating approximately 34 covers, with wood-effect laminate flooring and carpet on entry plus a kitchen / sales counter, finished with a tiled floor.

Additionally, there is a kitchenette, shared customer WC facilities and a separate storage area.

The property is equipped with kerosene heating and a combination of spotlights and pendant lighting fixtures, set beneath a suspended ceiling.

The unit has a long-standing use as a traditional café, including the benefit of a Premises Licence and the kitchen appliances / fixtures are to be included as part of the letting.

Externally, the premises has the benefit of an outside seating area that offers stunning views of the idyllic marina.

There is a dedicated car park providing ample parking for the Marina visitors.
