LOCATION

The property occupies a central position on Mainline Industrial Estate at the eastern outskirts of Milnthorpe, South Lakeland, which is at the southern end of Cumbria, in the North West of England. The estate has a variety of uses that include trade, transport and storage and distribution companies that include Kalisan, James Cropper 3D Products, Heartwood Bespoke joinery, J T Leyland and Lake Loos.

Milnthorpe is a large village with a population of 2,199 (2011 Census) which was originally a port, using the River Bela and estuary (now only navigable to Arnside) and remains a lively commercial centre for South Lakeland.

The town benefits from tourism and hospitality being situated on the A6 between Carnforth and the A590 offering good local facilities including a Booths Supermarket, a number of public houses and restaurants and separate primary and secondary schools. Local areas of interest include Dallam Tower and Estate well known for its attractive walks that take in the River Bela and a large population of deer and also Levens Hall and Gardens which is a short distance to the north. Arnside is 3 miles away taking in Morecambe Bay and the Arnside and Silverdale AONB extends south of Milnthorpe including Gait Barrows National Nature Reserve, Leighton Moss and Warton Crag Nature Reserve.

The nearest and principal town of South Lakeland is Kendal which is around 9 miles to the north with a resident population of 29,495 (2011 Census) hosting a wide range of retail and leisure facilities. The nearby village of Oxenholme has a train station on the West Coast main railway line providing direct routes to London (approximate journey time 2 hours 50 minutes) and Glasgow (1 hour 45 minutes).

Carnforth and Junction 35 of the M6 motorway are around 9 miles to the south accessed from the A6 and the nearest city, Lancaster, is a further 6 miles south, and is a historic and cultural city with a central population of 52,234 (2011 Census) and a wider district population of 138,375 encompassing several settlements including Morecambe. Lancaster is the County Town of Lancashire having excellent communications from the M6 motorway Junction 33 to the south and Junction 34 to the north. It also has a train station on the West Coast Railway Line.

Mainline Industrial Estate situated on the B6385 which travels to Crooklands, providing a direct route to Junction 36 of the M6 just 3 miles away.
