Description

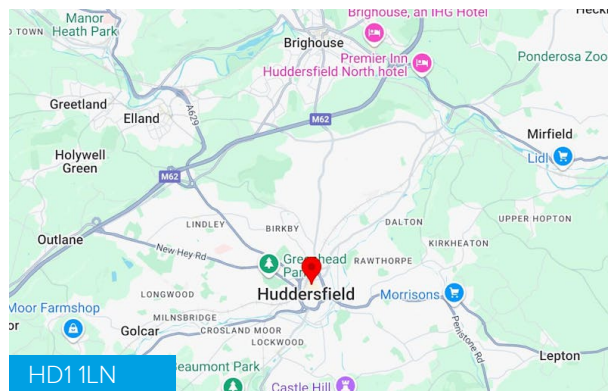

Whether you need private office space, coworking desks, or hot desking options, 12 Station Street offers a range of flexible workspace solutions. The centre also features modern training rooms, meeting spaces and conference rooms, perfect for hosting business events and interviews. Virtual office services, including call handling, mail forwarding and a business address are also available to your business professional preference.

Location

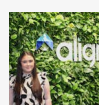

2 St Peters Street is located in the town centre of Huddersfield. Transport links are excellent with John Williams Street Bus Stop J3 (202,203,229 and 254) situated along St John Williams Street. Access to Huddersfield Station is 0.2-miles away and is a 2 minute walk from the site, providing access in and around the town. There are bars and restaurants within walking distance.

The A629 is to the South East of the site which connects to the A642, linking to the M1, providing access to the M1 North and South, offering wider linkages to large cities such as Leeds and London. The A62 is to the south and that links to the centre of Manchester.

Leeds Bradford Airport is 20.2 miles North of the Huddersfield.
