EXETER

The property benefits from an exceptional city-centre location, within easy walking distance of Exeter's extensive retail, leisure and hospitality amenities

PROPERTY LOCATION

The Senate occupies a prominent position within Southernhay Gardens, Exeter's established prime office district, with direct frontage onto Western Way and the inner ring road.

The property benefits from an exceptional city-centre location, within easy walking distance of Exeter's extensive retail, leisure and hospitality amenities. Princesshay and Guildhall Shopping Centres are both close by, alongside a wide selection of cafés, bars, restaurants and independent retailers. Excellent transport connections are also readily accessible. Exeter's main bus station is a short walk away, while Exeter St David's railway station provides regular direct services to Bristol, London and other major destinations.

The surrounding area is well served by a range of high-quality hotels, including Premier Inn, Mercure, Hotel du Vin and Southernhay House Hotel, making the location particularly convenient for visiting clients and staff. A local deli is situated immediately adjacent to the building, providing a convenient amenity for occupiers, while the wider Southernhay area offers an attractive mix of green spaces, restaurants and professional services.
