LOCATION

The site is in a prime South-West London location within the borough of Merton, immediately adjacent to Raynes Park railway station. The site is bounded by the railway on three sides and can be accessed via Station Approach. There are two separate access roads to the Estate.

Raynes Park is an affluent commuter suburb of London, providing fast train access to Central London, with regular trains to Waterloo (21 minutes) and the wider South-East railway network. The location benefits from strong demographics and excellent connectivity to the A3, A298 and M25 motorway, which provides direct access to the National Motorway Network, Central London and the wider South-East.
