LOCATION

The subjects are located within the Partick area of Glasgow, approximately two miles west of Glasgow City Centre. More specifically, the subjects are situated on the west side of Byres Road, between its junctions with Dumbarton Road to the south and Chancellor Street to the north.

The location has good links to the transport network with the M8 motorway at Charing Cross (junctions 18 and 19) being a short distance to the east. There are numerous bus services running along Byres Road itself and connections to the subway network at Hillhead Station and the suburban electrified rail network at Partick Station which is within five minutes walking distance of the subjects respectively. There is metered on-street car parking available throughout this section of Byres Road.

The areas surrounding the subjects is considered a well-established business location. This section of Byres Road primarily comprises tenement buildings similar to the subjects with ground floor retail units and residential flatted dwellings above. Byres Road forms the main retailing pitch within the West End of Glasgow with local amenities and facilities being readily available within the immediate vicinity including local supermarkets, bars, restaurants and numerous high street brands.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects form a ground floor retail unit within a traditional four-storey blonde sandstone tenement. The property benefits from a glazed display frontage providing good visibility from the street. Ancillary accommodation is arranged to the rear, including storage and staff facilities. Surrounding occupiers include a mix of national and independent retailers. The property would suit a variety of commercial uses.
