Location

The property is located within the north-western quarter of Derby City, in the popular and historic Friar Gate Conservation Area, characterised by a mix of commercial and residential uses. The site occupies a prominent position adjacent to the iconic Friar Gate Bridge and directly opposite the principal entrance to the Friar Gate Goods Yard redevelopment.

Friar Gate has strong links to the University of Derby, with the Derby Law School situated nearby at One Friar Gate Square, along with the recently constructed Cavendish Building Business School on Agard Street, surrounded by substantial student accommodation developments. In addition, the location provides easy access to a wide range of local amenities, including shops, cafés and restaurants, as well as excellent transport links into and out of Derby City Centre.

Description

The subject property comprises a four-storey, Georgian-era office building constructed of traditional brick beneath a pitched slate roof.

Internally, it offers a serviced office environment with sixteen office suites spread across four floors, including a communal meeting room, WC/kitchen facilities, ancillary storage space, basement area and a two-storey rear extension providing additional accommodation.

The accommodation has been fitted to a good standard throughout, retaining period features including painted plastered walls and ceilings, a mix of carpet tiles and vinyl flooring, with traditional sash windows featured to the front, side and part of the rear, complemented by powder-coated aluminium framed windows to the extension.

The property is Grade II listed (ref: 1216460) and set within a designated conservation area (ref: 2701).
