Description

Set beneath a series of striking Victorian railway arches, this self-contained commercial unit offers a design-led environment with excellent ceiling height, a curved vaulted profile and a contemporary industrial finish. The space benefits from a concrete floor, LED linear lighting, glazed frontage with and WC facilities, making it immediately suitable for a range of occupiers including creative studios, showroom, fitness, leisure or specialist retail uses. These arches are complemented by newly delivered residential schemes and a growing mix of independent operators in the immediate vicinity.

The property is located on Angel Lane within the Manor Place Depot Arches, an established mixed-use commercial parade in Elephant & Castle. Excellent public transport connectivity is provided via Elephant & Castle (Bakerloo and Northern lines, National Rail and Thameslink services) and Kennington Underground Station (Northern line), both within comfortable walking distance, alongside multiple bus routes serving the surrounding area. The location offers swift access to Central London, the City and West End, making it highly accessible for staff, customers and visitors alike.
