Location

Fraserburgh is located on the north east corner of the Moray Firth coastline in northern Aberdeenshire. It is 41 miles north of Aberdeen and 17 miles north of Peterhead. Inverness is 90 miles to the west. Fraserburgh is known for being the biggest shell fish port in Europe and has a population of approximately 13,000. Catchment industry is mixed including, agriculture, oil & gas engineering and growing energy and infrastructure activity.

The property is located on South Harbour Road which links the A90, being the main route south, to the harbour and town centre. Surrounding occupiers include Tesco, Screwfix and a variety of industrial occupiers.

Description

The property comprises a purpose built multi-let retail and trade park comprising 3 units. A Lidl food store occupied under a long ground lease acts as the anchor. Units 1 & 2 were developed in approximately 2004 as complimentary retail warehouse units.

The property benefits from a large shared car park and easy access via a roundabout on South Harbour Road. The Retail Park benefits from a dedicated rear access and yard for loading and deliveries, this is accessed off South Road and has ample space for HGV provision.

Units 1 & 2 are of steel frame construction with block wall and cladding system under a cladded roof system. Each unit benefits from rear roller shutter door access (direct to the rear yard) and feature entrance detail. The units benefit from traditional tenant fit out in each instance.

Argos provides a secure customer only order suite and counter area in a modern corporate style, to the rear there is a well racked warehouse and ancillary areas for staff. Toolstation provides a small dedicated customer trade counter with an open and transparent configuration, the remainder of the property is heavily racked for stock storage. Staff ancillary facilities are provide to the rear of the unit.

FOR EV have not yet commenced their installation program over their 6 spaces within the car park.

Site

The site extends to a total area of approximately 2.63 acres.

Tenure

Heritable interest. There is a long ground lease granted to Lidl expiring in 2129 (approximately 103 years unexpired) at £1 p.a. if asked, this lease forms part of the subjects being sold.
