LOCATION:

Occupying a prime city centre position set very close to Truro Cathedral, the property sits within one of Truro's most characterful trading locations. The surrounding streets are home to a strong mix of independent operators including Vertigo and the Old Grammar School, alongside well regarded galleries and jewellers such as Douglas Hughes Fine Jewellery and Truro Goldsmiths. Just around the corner, Boscawen Street provides Truro's principal retail pitch, with nearby occupiers including The White Company, Mint Velvet and Waterstones. Nearby Lemon Quay further enhances the retail offering, with occupiers including M&S, Primark and Café Nero. The property also benefits from excellent accessibility, being approximately a two minute walk from Truro Bus Station and around 15 minutes on foot from Truro railway station.

DESCRIPTION:

A smart two-storey retail unit.

The ground floor comprises an attractive shop with large display windows, providing excellent visibility and strong passing footfall. The retail space benefits from clean neutral decor and a practical layout. To the rear are stairs to the first floor and also a lobby leading to a useful storage area fitted with extensive shelving.

The first floor provides a spacious, bright room suitable for use as a staff area or additional storage, with a kitchen area set to one side and a separate WC. The upper accommodation, together with the stairs, has been newly carpeted and is presented in a clean, neutral style throughout.

Overall, the property is ready for immediate occupation and offers a versatile opportunity for a range of retail occupiers seeking a prominent Truro city centre presence.
