LOCATION

Dunfermline is situated in a strategic location on the north side of the Firth of Forth, 17 miles north of Edinburgh. The town is the main shopping and commercial centre within West Fife and benefits from being located adjacent to Junction 3 of the M90 motorway, which links Edinburgh to the south and Perth, Dundee and Aberdeen to the north.

The main City centre lies approximately 2 miles to the north via the Queensferry Road which also provides frequent bus services to the city centre as well as the wider regional and national locations.

Dunfermline is served by three railway stations; Dunfermline City, Dunfermline Queen Margaret and Rosyth, which lies approximately ¼ mile to the south.

The subject property is situated within Carnegie Campus on the southern periphery of Dunfermline, adjacent to the M90 spur providing direct access to the M90 motorway at Junction 2. This is a well established business park situation with surrounding occupiers including, amongst others, Optos, HBoS and BskyB.

DESCRIPTION

Claymore House is a modern detached office, benefitting from open plan open space across the ground and first floors. There is also good levels of storage on the lower ground floor alongside the main building plant and services areas.

The accommodation is of a good standard and benefits from some recent refurbishment and includes a large reception foyer, meeting rooms and support areas. Both floors have breakout space and staff areas along with male and female changing rooms containing showers on the ground floor.

It has solid floors which have been raised with carpeted overlay with some areas having vinyl coverings. Walls are finished predominantly in painted plasterboard with ceilings being of suspended acoustic tiles set upon what is thought to be a metal grid. The ceiling includes modern LED light fixtures. Staff and kitchen areas are well presented and include domestic style wall and floor mounted fixtures and fittings.

The first floor benefits from lift and main stair access which is located in the centre of the foyer on the ground floor. The floors offer a good mix of open plan space allows for bright workspace along with breakout and private office and meeting room areas creating a bright and collaborative working environment.

The overall site offers excellent and attractive landscaped grounds and car parking with circa 60 marked spaces and 2 EV charging stations.
