- Grade C-listed property
- Fully surfaced site with parking
- 138.26 sq m (1,488 sq ft)

LOCATION

The subjects are located to the west of the village of Thornton. Thornton itself lies between the towns of Kirkcaldy and Glenrothes and stands between the River Ore and Lochty Burn.

More specifically, the subjects are located on Strathore Road, lying towards its eastern extent within close proximity to the high street. A small range of local amenities can be found within Thornton with a wider range being located within Glenrothes, a short distance to the north.

Thornton lies within close proximity to the A92 which connects to the M90 and the rest of Scotland's motorway network beyond. The village has its own railway station known as Glenrothes with Thornton.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a single storey former school building of solid stone construction set beneath a multi-pitched slate clad roof. It has a surfaced site with stone boundary walls.

Internally, the subject is arranged to provide areas of open-plan space and some cellular rooms, as well as toilet/bathroom and kitchen facilities. The subject would benefit from internal renovation.

ACCOMMODATION

The subjects have been measured in accordance with the RICS Property Measurement, 2nd Edition and Code of Measuring Practice, 6th edition on a Gross Area basis:

138.26 sq m (1,488 sq ft).

RATEABLE VALUE

With reference to the Scottish Assessors Association Website, we note that the subjects have a current rateable value of 5,300 and £3,000 respectively.
