Location

Exmouth, a coastal town with a population of around 38,000, is highly regarded by both residents and visitors. In recent years, the town has experienced notable growth in residential development.

Travel to and from Exmouth is made effortless by the presence of Exeter Airport, situated roughly 12 miles away. Furthermore, the town benefits from local rail connections, linking to the main line through Exeter St David's station, which is only a 30-minute journey from Exmouth.

The Dinan Way Industrial Estate comprises one of the primary trading locations in the town and is well located at the Salterton Road/Dinan Way junction opposite LIDL.

Comprising 39 units in total, the estate is home to a large number of businesses including Simon Turner Boilers, East Devon Pets and Highfield Coachworks.

Description

The mid terrace industrial building is currently laid out as warehouse and storage on the mezzanine.

With a loading door and separate glazed pedestrian door the property would suit a variety of uses, subject to consents.

Externally, the unit has allocated parking in the shared car park.
