Substantial Guest House with Planning Permission for Residential Conversion – Prime Seafront Location

Situated in a prime coastal position on the highly desirable Esplanade in Whitley Bay, this property offers a fantastic opportunity to acquire a large freehold building in one of the North East's most sought-after seaside locations. Currently operating as a guest house, the property is believed to comprise of approximately 14 bedrooms arranged over multiple floors together with a range of additional reception and service rooms. The overall size and layout offer excellent scope for redevelopment or refurbishment, subject to the necessary consents.

The site benefits from full planning permission for change of use from C1 (guest house) to 3 x two-bedroom flats and 2 x one-bedroom flats (Class C3) including a refuse storage area, external cycle storage units for six cycles and proposed external alterations to the windows and rooflights at the rear, subject to conditions. Further information can be found on the North Tyneside Council Planning Portal under reference 24/01340/FUL.

Properties of this scale in such a prominent seafront position rarely come to market and the building presents significant potential for developers, investors or those seeking a large property with multiple future uses.

Whitley Bay is a vibrant and increasingly popular coastal town known for its award-winning beaches, attractive promenade and thriving town centre. The area benefits from a wide range of cafes, restaurants and independent shops, as well as excellent transport links via the Tyne and Wear Metro providing convenient access to Newcastle upon Tyne and the wider region.

This is a rare opportunity to secure a sizeable property in a prime location with approved development potential, offering strong appeal to investors and developers alike.
