LOCATION/OVERVIEW

The Electric Press occupies the south side of Millennium Square which is a focal point for events in Leeds City Centre and hosts The Christmas Kindle Markets and an ice skating rink in the winter, along with street food markets and big sports screen in the summer. A full schedule of events can be provided.

The Electric Press boasts a range of bars and restaurants with a focus on high quality offerings and late night refreshment.

Leeds Arena is a five minute walk to the east with its 1 million annual visitors. Two minutes to the south is the well established Greek Street and Park Row food and beverage hub. Immediately opposite The Electric Press is 'The Northern Market' - Leeds' new indoor street food hall, incorporating a late night micro brewery and six rotating food offers.
