Description

The showroom/office is arranged over the ground and lower ground floors of this RIBA award winning mixed use property.

Offering a fully glazed ground floor, the property's contemporary design offers modern character throughout with polished concrete walls and ceilings, clean lines and large windows offering excellent natural light throughout the ground floor and into the lower ground. Largely open plan the lower ground offers two meeting rooms and a kitchen area. The WC and shower facilities are currently located in the ground floor common area and are shared between first floor and ground floor tenants. All floors benefit from access to a DDA compliant passenger lift.

The unit would suit either a creative agency looking for a unique office space or a showroom occupier.
