

LA CAMPANERA

A LEGACY PRESERVED

HISTORY LIVES HERE.
BEAUTIFULLY.

Originally purchased by tenor Antonio Cortis, La Campanera is one of Dénia's most iconic private estates.

Original architectural elements, historic interiors, and gardens rooted in Mediterranean tradition reflect a home where heritage and timeless elegance meet.

THE PROPERTY

Private estate in one of Dénia's most prestigious residential areas

Expansive mature gardens with traditional Mediterranean landscaping

Main residence with historic character and preserved architectural details

Summer kitchen & entertaining pavilion designed for gatherings

Complete privacy and exceptional potential

A HOME WITH MEMORY

Throughout his life, Antonio Cortis filled La Campanera with art, music, and beauty. The estate retains original features and historic spaces that echo its cultural past.

THE MAIN SALON
Original interiors and details preserved since the 1940s.

THE ENTRANCE
A timeless welcome, as it has been for generations.

THE COVERED TERRACE
Shaded, elegant, and made for Mediterranean living.

A LEGACY SHARED

The current owners have donated original pieces associated with Antonio Cortis, including a Chassagne Frères piano, portraits, and historic items from La Campanera to Dénia's cultural collection.

His spirit continues to resonate in the home he loved, and in the community he cherished.
